

Colorado River Management Plan Administrative Use

What are “Administrative Uses”?

NPS Programs

- Monitoring and Research
- Resource Management
- Trails and Campsite rehabilitation
- Resource Protection
- Health and Safety

Cooperative Programs

- Grand Canyon Monitoring and Research Center (GCMRC)
- U.S. Geological Survey (USGS)
- Tamarisk Removal Project
- Hualapai Natural and Cultural Resources Management

Partnership Programs

- Guide Training
- Environmental Youth Club, National Honors Program
- Cooperative Resource Conservation Program
- Wild & Scenic Rivers eligibility inventory

Recording Wildlife Sign

GCMRC Trip

Sediment Monitoring

Trail Rehabilitation

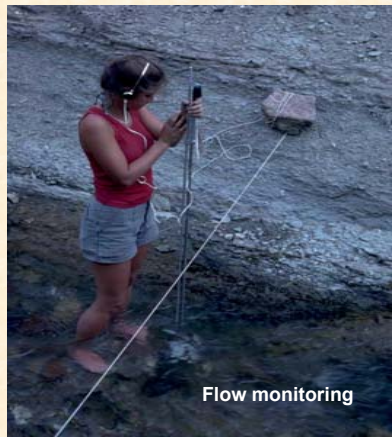

Archeological Projects

Rescue Operations

NPS Patrols

Flow monitoring

Did you know ?

Research proposals undergo several levels of review before approval.

Research permits are required before conducting field activities.

Administrative use permits are required for researchers, the NPS, and others before trips are scheduled.

Administrative use is subject to the Minimum Requirement process in accordance with NPS wilderness management policy

